In compliance with the directive of the Election Commission of India and following a prior notice, a cross-inspection was conducted on April 11, 2024, of your election expenditure accounts up to April 9, 2024. This inspection was carried out alongside the Shadow Observation Register maintained by the Assistant Expenditure Observer (Headquarters) in the presence of the Expenditure Observer. The following discrepancies have been noticed, and you are directed to reply within 48 hours of receiving this notice.

- 1) As per the Shadow observation Register upto 09.04.2024, the total expenditure booked under expenditure on Campaign vehicles is Rs.2300/-, however the amount booked in the Candidate Election Expenditure Register under this head is nil. There is an understatement of Rs.2300/- in the candidate account.
- 2) You have not produced the bank account for verification, the account opened exclusively for the purpose of election expenditure not later than one day before the date of on which the candidate files nomination papers.
